Family and Friends,

Merry (early) Christmas from Bangkok, Thailand! We are on Day 10 of 16 of our government mandated quarantine. God has answered so many prayers over the last month. Just to name a few:

- Living. We found a place to live temporarily...for free!
- Visa. Ross finally got his Visa with around 24-hours to spare before we departed. Whew!
- Travel. Our flights and overall travel was the smoothest we have experienced traveling....ever!
- Quarantine. We were overjoyed to discover we have a corner hotel room with windows on two walls and a great view of Bangkok!

Thank you, thank you for your continued prayers and support as we embark on this journey!

How can we pray for you? Reply and let us know!

We are so very grateful for your support of all kinds. If you feel led to support us financially in any way you can see some specific ways by going to our website or clicking the link below.

Give Now!

Have a great Christmas and Happy New Year!

Blessings,

Ross and Eirenee'
